

Ignite the Light

NEWSLETTER—August 23, 2012

Summer Games 2012—Second Half to be as exciting and successful as First!

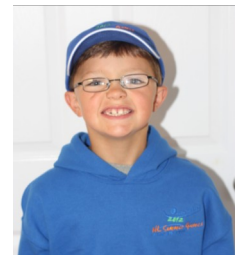

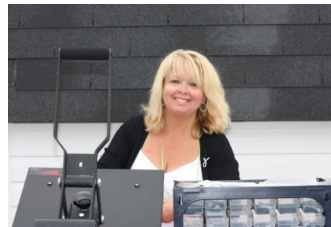

Athletics, Female Ball Hockey, Golf, Male Soccer and Synchronized Swimming will have all the athletes busy in the water and on the land until Saturday, August 25, 2012! Everyone is encouraged to go and watch the athletes from all over the province as they “ignite their light.”

Director of Registration ,
Zoe Hamilton

Official Merchandise of the Newfoundland and Labrador 2012 Summer Games

Universal Corporate Wear Inc is the official merchandise supplier for the NL Summer Games 2012. Many athletes are sporting the colorful t-shirts, hoodies and track pants as they go from the games to the Athletes Village and all stops in between. Merchandise can also be personalized and purchased at two venues in Carbonear and Harbour Grace.

Lynn Hindy owns Universal Corporate Wear who is selling merchandise for the games. Clothing featured here worn by Dylan Whelan.
Photos Courtesy of Pamela Whelan

Second Half Of Games—Wednesday Evening Start

The second half of the 2012 Summer Games kicked off Wednesday evening with boys soccer on the fields in Harbour Grace and Carbonear with teams from Mt. Pearl South, Central, St. John’s North, St. Pierre, Western and Host. There were lots of excited fans lining the fields as Mt. Pearl South, St. John’s North, and Western posted wins.

Marc Ryan of Host Male Soccer
Photo Courtesy of Pamela Whelan

Golf

Tee off began today in beautiful Whiteway at Pitcher’s Pond Golf Club.

Synchronized Swimming

Practice for Synchronized Swimming began this morning and competition began this afternoon.

Photo Courtesy of Pamela Whelan